Public Comment

Ron Ward- The energy resilience plan, can we get copies of that? Where is it available for the public? Kim-They sent it to the group of us but i can probably get it for you.

Ron Ward- My second question is about the Summer Reading Program. Is that for digital reading materials or for physical reading materials?

Kim- it's book reading. You can do books, magazines, graphic novels, newspapers or listen to audiobooks.

5. Director

Mark Maboll asked do you think this blip in the card sign-up is going to last? Kim Bales responded — The library is averaging 80–100 new library cards per month. It may be possible that the transition Deschutes has been going through has prompted the higher card sign-ups.

Mark Maboll asked—Any feedback from schools on the help the SRP is providing to students?

Kim Bales responded- The summer reading program is used to help kids keep reading throughout the summer so that when September rolls around they aren't behind.

Keya Rohovit Wrolson—Does emergency planning count for emergencies outside our county?

Kim Bales responded— Yes, we would be partnering with other counties to provide support in times of crisis.

Mark Maboll asked—what do you want to spend the money on a future windfall? Kim — A new sound system, new flooring all for Broughton room.

6. Friends of the Library

Financials/Statistics Review

7. February & March Library Fund

Continuing Business

8. Meeting Room Policy Update

Sandy Kerbow—What will happen to the old tables in the Broughton Room? Kim Bales responded-I will put it out to the county to see if anyone wants them. If not, then they will go on the public auction site and be sold at auction.

Mark Maboll asked— Did you have any blow back from people after the meeting room policy changed? Kim — At first yes, but we gave them other places they could go and did our best to notify people of the change and now everyone seems satisfied.

New Business

9. Appointment of Library Manager

10. Board Vacancy Nomination

Sandy-First pick- Marty-, 2nd pick-Alexis

Mark- First pick-Alexis, Marty- 2nd pick

Keya-First pick-Alexis

Natalie-First pick- Alexis

Kim-First pick- Alexis

Board took turns explaining who and why they picked the person that they did.

11. Upcoming Board Vacancy

Keya Rohovit Wrolson—Do the people who applied for the current board position need to reapply again for the next upcoming board position? Kim Bales responded — I'm not sure, but I will ask.
